

BE ATTRACTIVE - ATTRACT WHAT YOU WANT IN LIFE

Be alive to the present and unwrap the gifts of today

Make the space for the people and events that you attract on a daily basis rather than try to make something else happen tomorrow. Be attractive, stop.....be grateful for this moment and the gift it brings.

Be playful and let the music of the soul enrich you

Attraction lives in the moment as does fun and laughter, the music of the soul. Let this music bring lightness and brightness and enrich everything and everyone it touches, especially you.

Be courageous and align with your truth

Your truth, that vein of gold, is naturally attractive and when you summon the courage to align yourself and your life with it you will shine, you will have untold freedom, strength and peace and be irresistibly attractive.

Be open and allow a vision to illuminate your day

Visions appear when you are ready. Have a vision or share someone else's and let it add meaning and radiance to your day. Notice how attractive you are and enjoy the magic that you attract into your life.

Be willing and tell others how to be more attractive to you

We are all the same yet very different. Take time to discover your true Self and then with kindness, clarity and purpose tell others how they can best relate to you, don't expect them to know. These simple keys open the doors to honest relationships and abundant riches.

Be in flow and marvel at the ease

Give yourself permission and time to embrace your natural rhythms and your inner wisdom. Accept and enjoy the inevitable changes of pace, colour, tone and mood, and notice synchronicity and miracles unfolding before you; acknowledge how much more attractive you are when you are in flow.

Be wise, love and accept yourself as you are

When you are wise you love and accept yourself as you are, you add more spark to your own inner flame and you shine even more brilliantly. You radiate compassion and grace and attract infinite joy and untold treasures. You are irresistibly attractive
